LAMB INSURANCE SERVICES WELCOMES GENE DENNIS AND PRESTIGE INSURANCE AGENCY TO THE LAMB TEAM

New York, NY (July 7, 2020): Lamb Insurance Services (Lamb) announced today that Gene Dennis and Prestige Insurance Services (Prestige) joins Lamb Insurance Services effective July 1, 2020. Gene and Prestige will focus on expanding service to the nonprofit and social service organizations in the Carolinas, Georgia and Virginia.

“We are excited that Gene and his associates from Prestige will be a part of the Lamb team. They bring more than 17 years’ experience building relationships with nonprofit and social service organizations, including several of the country’s leading Historically Black Colleges and Universities. As such, their mission aligns beautifully with Lamb’s long-standing focus on ‘protecting organizations that positively affect people’s lives,’” stated Josh Lamberg, CEO, Lamb Insurance Services. “Additionally, their core values and passionate commitment to supporting colleagues and clients is a shared focus as our world continues to change.”

“I’m proud of the work that the Prestige team has done in serving our clients which includes many minority-run organizations that frequently find themselves underserved. That’s why we choose to join Lamb, who as a team from top to bottom, have the same future-focused growth strategy centered on improving the products, services and technologies offered to nonprofit and social service organizations,” said Gene Dennis, managing client executive. “For everyone here at Prestige that will be joining Lamb, this journey is all about providing service into our communities – an approach that will only be accelerated by our joining the Lamb team.”
